Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan Announces 2009 Management Team

Southfield, Mich., February 23, 2009 — Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan is proud to announce its 2009 management team. Board President Gary Gonzalez made the announcement.

The 2009 management staff includes: William D. Seklar, President and Chief Executive Officer; Ann Warren, Director of Operations; Colleen Rapson, Controller; Kristen West, Vice President of Patient Services; Kelli Zgieb, Director of Special Events; and Betsy Bonnell, Director of Development.

West, who has been with the foundation for 11 years, was promoted to Vice President of Patient Services and will be responsible for family and patient relations, manage the staff of social workers, and help plan programs and services. Zgieb is a new hire in the new position of Director of Special Events, which involves coordinating and executing key fundraising events, and Betsy Bonnell was recently promoted to Director of Development. In her new position, Bonnell will manage annual givings and several of the foundation's major events. She has been with the organization for eight years.

"Our board has a lot of confidence in this year's management team, namely because of the passion and skills they will bring to the Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan," said Gonzalez. "This year will no doubt bring many challenges, but the team is prepared to meet them head on, with a fresh perspective, and with a desire to further the mission of our organization."
