Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan Names Meagan Wilson, Director of Annual Giving and Communications

Troy, Mich., June 23, 2009 – Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan, a statewide agency whose mission is to help families cope with leukemia, lymphoma and related blood disorders, has named Meagan Wilson as Director of Annual Giving and Communications. Foundation President and CEO William Seklar made the announcement.

Wilson, a graduate of Michigan State University and former Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan volunteer, has a background in Journalism and Public Relations. As the Director of Annual Giving and Communications for the Foundation, Wilson will manage the development and implementation of annual fundraising, establish relationships with potential donors, and oversee events and various Foundation initiatives. Wilson's additional responsibilities will include web management and copy writing.

"We are excited and proud to have Meagan working with us. Her educational background will help her be an asset to the Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan. We welcome her and look forward to her contributions to our organization," said Seklar.
