Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan Names
Jane Porter as Office/Development Coordinator

Troy, Mich., Dec. 8, 2010 – Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan, a statewide agency whose mission is to help families cope with leukemia, lymphoma and related blood disorders, has named Jane Porter as Office/Development Coordinator. Foundation President & CEO William D. Seklar made the announcement.

Porter is a graduate of Humber College of Arts and Sciences in Rexdale, Ontario, Canada with a degree in Graphic Arts and Communication. She has a background of non-profit experience, including positions of Manager of Third Party Events for Leader Dogs for the Blind in Rochester and Director of Education for St. Philip's Episcopal Church. Porter resides in Waterford with her husband.

As Office/Development Coordinator, Porter will coordinate the Annual Fund and Trade Dollar programs and oversee all office functions.

“Jane's background in development for the non-profit sector makes her an excellent choice for Office/Development Coordinator,” said Seklar. “We look forward to working with her to support Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan's patients and families.”
