JK&T Wings, Inc. Raises More Than $11,000 for Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan

Troy, Mich., June 15, 2010 – JK&T Wings, Inc., a leading franchisee for Buffalo Wild Wings[®] (“BWW”), is proud to donate more than $11,000 to Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan, a statewide agency helping Michigan families cope with leukemia, lymphoma and related blood disorders.

The proceeds were raised during the “Hoops for Hope” campaign, which was held during the month of March in the spirit of the “March Madness” NCAA college basketball tournament. Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan supporters were encouraged to visit participating Buffalo Wild Wings locations during the campaign to purchase “Hoops for Hope” basketball pin-ups for $1.

“JK&T Wings is a true supporter of Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan,” said William D. Seklar, President & CEO of Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan. “We thank their organization for their commitment to making our inaugural ‘Hoops for Hope’ campaign a success.”

“Our Buffalo Wild Wings restaurants are committed to philanthropic programs and organizations that benefit local communities. Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan is an organization that impacts the lives of thousands of special people across the state. And for this reason, it is with great pride that we donate the proceeds from the pin-up sales to the foundation,” said Cheryl Macedo, Vice President of Marketing and Advertising, JK&T Wings, Inc.
